About This Course

From A2 to Interview-Ready is a complete English course workbook for learners who start at level A2 and want to build strong, clear English for call center, customer service, and sales jobs. You will improve your pronunciation, grammar, vocabulary, and speaking step by step, and in the last module you will train for the real hiring interview with 125 questions and sample answers.

How the course works

- Each module has short lessons, tables you can study, dialogues you can read aloud, exercises with answer keys, a speaking task, and a checklist.
- Study 4 to 5 days a week. 45 to 60 minutes a day is enough. Consistency is more important than long sessions.
- Always say the examples ALOUD. English is a speaking skill. If you only read, your mouth will not learn.
- Record yourself often. Listen back and compare with your earlier recordings to see your progress.
- Do the exercises before you check the answers in Appendix A. Mistakes are the best teachers.
- Use the progress tracker (Appendix E) and tick the checklist at the end of every module.

Your 4-step daily routine

Step	Time	What to do
1. Learn	15 min	Read the lesson and say each example aloud twice.
2. Practice	20 min	Do the exercises and the speaking task. Record yourself.
3. Review	10 min	Check your answers. Write 3 new words or phrases in your notebook.
4. Use	10 min	Make 5 sentences about your own life or job with today's language.

The Most Important Rule

Surround Yourself with English

Make English Part of Your Daily Life

Try to make English a regular part of your everyday routine, not just a subject you study.

Listen to English while commuting, watch English videos during your free time, read short English posts, and practice speaking whenever you have the opportunity.

The more meaningful exposure you get, the more familiar English will become. Over time, you can improve your listening comprehension, vocabulary, fluency, and confidence.

Don't just study English.
Use English.

Your goal is not to understand every single word. Your goal is to understand more today than you understood yesterday.

Your Daily English Immersion Plan

You do not need to find extra time. Put English inside the time you already have.

Moment	Do this	Minutes
Commute / walking	Listen to English podcasts, news, or interviews. Do not worry about every word.	20-30
Breaks / free time	Watch short English videos. Use English subtitles when you need them.	15-20
Reading	Read short English posts, headlines, or product reviews. Underline 3 new words.	10
Your phone	Change your phone and your favourite apps to English for one week.	0 (automatic)
Speaking	Talk to yourself, a friend, or send English voice notes. Describe your day.	10-15

7 Habits of Successful English Learners

1. Be consistent. 30 minutes every day is better than 5 hours once a week.

2. Speak from day one. Mistakes are a normal part of learning, so do not wait to be perfect.

3. Learn phrases, not only single words. Learn "I would like to..." and not only "like".

4. Record your voice and listen back. You will hear mistakes you cannot hear while speaking.

5. Choose content you enjoy (sports, series, cooking, technology). You will do more of what you enjoy.

6. Review often: after 1 day, 1 week, and 1 month. Words you do not review are easy to forget.

7. Learn with other people. A study partner or group keeps you motivated and gives you speaking practice.

MODULE 1

Sounds of English

Pronunciation foundations and spelling

Level A2

Time: Weeks 1-2 Skills: Pronunciation, Spelling, Listening

BY THE END OF THIS MODULE YOU CAN

- ✓ Say and spell any name, email, and number clearly on the phone.
- ✓ Pronounce the hardest English sounds for Arabic speakers (P, V, TH, short and long vowels).
- ✓ Say -s and -ed endings correctly and put the stress on the right syllable.

IN THIS MODULE

- ▶ 1.1 The alphabet and spelling on the phone
- ▶ 1.2 Numbers, phone numbers, prices, and emails
- ▶ 1.3 Difficult sounds for Arabic speakers
- ▶ 1.4 Word endings: -s and -ed
- ▶ 1.5 Word stress

1.1 The alphabet and spelling on the phone

In a call center you must spell names, emails, and order numbers many times a day. Customers cannot see your face, so every letter must be clear. Learn the sound of each letter first. Then learn the code words (the NATO alphabet) for letters that sound similar, like B / P / D / T, or M / N, or F / S.

Letter	Sound	Code word	Letter	Sound	Code word
A	/eɪ/	Alfa	N	/en/	November
B	/biː/	Bravo	O	/əʊ/	Oscar
C	/siː/	Charlie	P	/piː/	Papa
D	/diː/	Delta	Q	/kjuː/	Quebec
E	/iː/	Echo	R	/ɑː/	Romeo
F	/ef/	Foxtrot	S	/es/	Sierra
G	/dʒiː/	Golf	T	/tiː/	Tango
H	/eɪtʃ/	Hotel	U	/juː/	Uniform
I	/aɪ/	India	V	/viː/	Victor
J	/dʒeɪ/	Juliett	W	/ˈdʌbljuː/	Whiskey
K	/keɪ/	Kilo	X	/eks/	X-ray
L	/el/	Lima	Y	/waɪ/	Yankee
M	/em/	Mike	Z	/zed/ or /ziː/	Zulu

★ TIP

Many companies also accept simple words like "B as in boy" or "P as in Peter". Ask your trainer which style your company uses. The most important thing is to be clear and slow.

☎ SPELLING A NAME ON THE PHONE

Agent: Could you spell your last name for me, please?

Customer: Sure. It's T-A-T-A-W-Y.

Agent: Let me check. T as in Tango, A as in Alfa, T as in Tango, A as in Alfa, W as in Whiskey, Y as in Yankee. Is that correct?

Customer: Yes, perfect. Thank you.

✎ EXERCISE 1.1 - SPELL IT OUT

Write the code words (Alfa, Bravo...) for each word.

1) BAG 2) PEN 3) FIVE 4) SEVEN 5) HELP

Now spell these names aloud using code words: 6) OMAR 7) SARA 8) YOUSSEF

Check your answers in Appendix A

1.2 Numbers, phone numbers, prices, and emails

Numbers are the most common reason for mistakes on calls. Practice them slowly. Say phone numbers in small groups, with a short pause between the groups.

What	How to say it	Example
0	"zero" (or "oh" in phone numbers)	0207 = "zero two zero seven"
Double numbers	"double" + number	055 = "zero double five"
13-19 vs 30-90	Stress the END for 13-19, the START for 30-90	thirTEEN (13) / THIRty (30)
Prices	number + currency + number	$15.50 = "fifteen dollars fifty"
Dates	ordinal numbers	12/03 = "the twelfth of March"
Email @	"at"	ali@mail.com = "ali at mail dot com"
Email .	"dot"	mail.com = "mail dot com"
Email - and _	"dash" / "hyphen" and "underscore"	sara_ali = "sara underscore ali"

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

Stress is the key. In fourteen (14), the stress is on the second part: four-TEEN. In forty (40), the stress is on the first part: FOR-ty. Customers hear this difference even when the line is bad.

✎ EXERCISE 1.2 - SAY IT CLEARLY

Write how you say each item in words.

1) 15 2) 50 3) 0100 555 3322 4) $19.99 5) mohamed.ali_90@mail.com

Check your answers in Appendix A

1.3 Difficult sounds for Arabic speakers

Arabic and English have different sounds. Some English sounds do not exist in Arabic, so they are difficult at first. The good news: you can train your mouth. Use these tricks and practice every day.

Sound	The problem	The trick	Practice words
/p/ vs /b/	There is no /p/ in Arabic, so "p" sounds like "b"	Put your hand in front of your mouth. For /p/ you feel a strong puff of air. For /b/ you do not.	pen / Ben, pay / bay, pack / back, cap / cab
/v/ vs /f/	"v" often sounds like "f"	For /v/, touch your top teeth to your bottom lip and make your voice buzz. For /f/ there is no buzz.	very / ferry, van / fan, leave / leaf, save / safe
/ɪ/ vs /iː/	Short and long "i" sound the same	/ɪ/ is short and relaxed. /iː/ is long, with a big smile.	ship / sheep, live / leave, sit / seat, bit / beat
/æ/ vs /e/	"bad" and "bed" sound the same	For /æ/ open your mouth wide, like at the doctor. For /e/ open less.	bad / bed, man / men, pan / pen, sad / said
/ʌ/ vs /ɒ/	"cup" and "cop" sound the same	/ʌ/ is a short sound from the throat, mouth half open. /ɒ/ has round lips.	cut / cot, luck / lock, cup / cop
/θ/ (think)	Often becomes /s/ or /t/: "sink", "tink"	Put the tip of your tongue between your teeth and blow air. No voice.	think, thank, three, month, thing
/ð/ (this)	Often becomes /d/ or /z/: "dis", "zis"	Same tongue position as /θ/ but add voice, a buzz.	this, that, they, brother, mother
/ŋ/ (sing)	People add a "g" sound at the end: "singg"	The back of your tongue touches the roof of your mouth. Air goes through the nose. No "g".	sing, long, morning, calling
/r/	Arabic /r/ is rolled	In English the tongue does NOT touch the roof. Curl it back slightly. Do not roll.	red, right, problem, really
/ʃ/ vs /tʃ/	"ship" and "chip" mix up	/ʃ/ is a long "shhh". /tʃ/ is a short "tsh" like a sneeze.	ship / chip, sheep / cheap, wash / watch

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

Practice with a mirror. For /θ/ and /ð/ you must SEE your tongue between your teeth. For /v/ you must SEE your teeth on your lip. If you do not see it, the sound is wrong.

✎ EXERCISE 1.3 - MINIMAL PAIRS

Listen to your trainer (or record yourself) and circle the word you hear or say. Then say both words slowly.

1) pen / Ben 2) very / ferry 3) sheep / ship 4) think / sink 5) bad / bed 6) wash / watch

Write the sound difference: 7) "pack" vs "back" = /__/ vs /__/ 8) "vine" vs "fine" = /__/ vs /__/

Check your answers in Appendix A

▶ SPEAKING TASK

Say these sentences 3 times each, slowly. 1) "Please pay the bill by Friday." 2) "I have very good news for you." 3) "Thank you for the three things you sent." 4) "This is the best offer this month."

1.4 Word endings: -s and -ed

Many learners skip the ending sounds. In English, the ending is very important because it shows the tense (past, present, plural). Look at the three ways to say each ending.

Ending	Say	After this sound	Examples
-s / -es	/s/	p, t, k, f (no voice)	works, helps, asks, thanks
-s / -es	/z/	b, d, g, v, l, m, n, vowels (voice)	calls, solves, needs, plans, agrees
-s / -es	/ɪz/	s, z, sh, ch, j	passes, uses, washes, watches, changes
-ed	/t/	p, k, f, s, sh, ch (no voice)	worked, helped, asked, stopped, watched
-ed	/d/	b, g, v, l, m, n, r, vowels (voice)	called, solved, changed, cleaned, played
-ed	/ɪd/	t, d only	wanted, needed, decided, started, ended

★ TIP

"wanted" has TWO syllables (WAN-ted), but "worked" has ONE syllable (workt). Do not say "work-ed"!

✎ EXERCISE 1.4 - SORT THE ENDINGS

Write /t/, /d/, or /ɪd/ for the -ed ending.

1) asked 2) solved 3) needed 4) helped 5) called 6) decided 7) stopped 8) changed

Check your answers in Appendix A

1.5 Word stress

Every English word with 2 or more syllables has one STRONG syllable. If you put the stress in the wrong place, people may not understand the word. Learn the stress together with the new word.

Rule	Examples
Most 2-syllable NOUNS and ADJECTIVES: stress the FIRST syllable	CUStomer, PROBlem, MANager, AGENT, PRODuct, BALance
Most 2-syllable VERBS: stress the SECOND syllable	reFUND, conFIRM, deLAY, acCEPT, preVENT
Same word, different stress: noun = FIRST, verb = SECOND	REfund (n) / reFUND (v), REcord / reCORD, TRANSfer / transFER
Words ending in -tion and -sion: stress the syllable BEFORE	inforMAtion, soLUtion, deCIsion, conVERsation
Words ending in -ic: stress the syllable BEFORE	autoMAtic, elecTRONic, ecoNOMic

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

Call center words with stress: CUStomer, serVICE, SUPervisor, comPLAINT, acCOUNT, paYMENT, deLIvery, apPOINTment, esCAlate, guaranTEE, WARranty, cancelLAtion, resoLUtion, comPUter, exPEriENCE.

✎ EXERCISE 1.5 - MARK THE STRESS

Underline or write in CAPITALS the strong syllable.

1) refund (verb) 2) customer 3) information 4) payment 5) solution 6) account 7) delivery 8) apology

Check your answers in Appendix A

✓ MODULE 1 CHECKLIST - I CAN

- ☐ Spell my name and an email address slowly with code words.
- ☐ Say numbers from 13 to 90 with the right stress.
- ☐ Say the difference between P/B and V/F in simple words.
- ☐ Say -ed endings as /t/, /d/, or /ɪd/ correctly.
- ☐ Put the stress on the right syllable in 10 call center words.

MODULE 2

Grammar Essentials

The grammar you need to speak with confidence

Level A2 to B1

Time: Weeks 3-5 Skills: Grammar, Writing, Speaking

BY THE END OF THIS MODULE YOU CAN

- ✓ Use the main tenses correctly: present, past, present perfect, and future.
- ✓ Make polite requests, offers, and questions like a professional agent.
- ✓ Join your ideas with linking words to give longer, clearer answers.

IN THIS MODULE

- ▶ 2.1 To be and the Present Simple
- ▶ 2.2 Present Continuous
- ▶ 2.3 Past Simple
- ▶ 2.4 Present Perfect
- ▶ 2.5 The Future: will, going to, and plans
- ▶ 2.6 Modal Verbs and Polite Requests
- ▶ 2.7 Questions and Indirect Questions
- ▶ 2.8 Small Words that Matter
- ▶ 2.9 Conditionals: If...
- ▶ 2.10 Linking Words: Make Longer Answers

2.1 To be and the Present Simple

Use the present simple for habits, facts, jobs, and routines. With he / she / it, add -s to the verb. This is the most common mistake, so check it every time.

Form	To be	Other verbs (work)
+	I am / he is / they are	I work, she works, they work
-	I am not / he is not / they are not	I do not work, he does not work
?	Am I? / Is he? / Are they?	Do you work? Does she work?

★ TIP

Remember: after does / doesn't, the verb has NO -s. Say "She doesn't work" and "Does he work?", never "She doesn't works".

Common mistake	Correct sentence
He work in sales.	He works in sales.
She don't know the answer.	She doesn't know the answer.
Do he speak English?	Does he speak English?
I am agree with you.	I agree with you.

✎ EXERCISE 2.1 - COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

1) She ____ (work) in a call center. 2) They ____ (not / open) on Fridays. 3) ____ he ____ (speak) English?

4) I ____ a customer service agent. 5) The system ____ slow today. 6) We ____ (help) customers every day.

Check your answers in Appendix A

2.2 Present Continuous

Use am / is / are + verb-ing for actions happening NOW or for temporary situations. On calls, it is useful for telling customers what you are doing.

Use	Example
Now	I am checking your account now.
Temporary	We are working on a solution at the moment.
Future plan	I am meeting my manager tomorrow.

★ TIP

Some verbs do not use -ing: know, understand, want, need, like, have (own). Say "I understand", not "I am understanding".

✎ EXERCISE 2.2 - SIMPLE OR CONTINUOUS?

1) I (work) ____ in a bank. This week I (train) ____ new agents. 2) Please hold. I (transfer) ____ your call. 3) She (not / know) ____ the answer.

Check your answers in Appendix A

2.3 Past Simple

Use the past simple for finished actions. It is the main tense for interview stories ("Tell me about a time...").

Form	Rule	Example
Regular +	verb + -ed	I worked, she helped, we solved it
Irregular +	a new form (learn them!)	go - went, have - had, make - made
Negative	did not + base verb	I did not call. (not "did not called")
Question	Did + subject + base verb	Did you send the email?

Irregular verbs for interviews	Past	Irregular verbs for interviews	Past go	went	give	gave have	had	tell	told
make	made	think	thought
take	took	know	knew
say	said	buy	bought
get	got	send	sent speak	spoke	leave	left
meet	met	write	wrote

✎ EXERCISE 2.3 - TELL ME ABOUT A TIME

Put the verb in the past simple.

1) Last year I (start) ____ a new job. 2) A customer (call) ____ me because he (lose) ____ his card. 3) I (not / know) ____ the answer, so I (ask) ____ my manager. 4) ____ you (solve) ____ the problem? Yes, I (do) ____.

Check your answers in Appendix A

2.4 Present Perfect

Use have / has + past participle to talk about experience and about things that started in the past and continue now. It is very useful in interviews.

Use	Example
Experience	I have worked with customers for three years.
Never / ever	I have never lost a customer. Have you ever worked night shifts?
For + period	I have worked here for two years.
Since + start point	I have worked here since 2024.
Just / already / yet	I have just finished. I have already called him. Have you finished yet?

★ TIP

Past simple = finished time ("I worked at ABC in 2023"). Present perfect = connection with now ("I have worked at ABC since 2023" = I still work there).

✎ EXERCISE 2.4 - CHOOSE THE CORRECT FORM

1) I (work / have worked) ____ in customer service for two years. 2) I (worked / have worked) ____ at ABC in 2023. 3) She ____ missed a target. (has never / has ever) 4) We have lived here (for / since) ____ 2020.

Check your answers in Appendix A

2.5 The Future: will, going to, and plans

Form	Use	Example
will	Decisions at the moment, promises, offers	I will call you back in ten minutes.
going to	Plans and intentions	I am going to improve my English this year.
present continuous	Fixed arrangements	I am meeting the manager tomorrow.

★ TIP

Promises with "will" build trust: "I will check this for you", "I will send the confirmation today". Always keep the promise!

✎ EXERCISE 2.5 - COMPLETE WITH WILL OR GOING TO

1) A: The phone is ringing. B: I ____ answer it. 2) I ____ study English every day this month. (plan) 3) Don't worry, I ____ send you the invoice today. (promise)

Check your answers in Appendix A

2.6 Modal Verbs and Polite Requests

Modals (can, could, would, should, may, must) are the key to polite English. Use them on every call.

Function	Phrases
Ask politely	Could you spell that, please? / Would you mind holding for a moment? / May I have your name?
Offer help	Can I help you? / Shall I check that for you? / Would you like me to send it by email?
Advise	You should restart your device. / I recommend that you...
Obligation	You must show your ID. / You have to enter the code. (rules)
Possibility	It could be a network problem. / It may take two days.

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

In polite requests, your voice goes UP at the end of questions with Yes/No answers ("Could you spell that, please?"). A flat voice sounds rude, even when the words are polite.

✎ EXERCISE 2.6 - MAKE IT POLITE

Change each sentence to a polite request.

1) Give me your account number. 2) Wait. 3) Repeat that. 4) Tell me your address. 5) Call tomorrow.

Check your answers in Appendix A

2.7 Questions and Indirect Questions

Direct questions: What is your name? Where do you live? Why did you call?

Indirect questions are softer and more professional. They start with a polite phrase and then use normal word order (no do/does/did).

Direct	Indirect (more polite)
What is your order number?	Could you tell me what your order number is?
Where do you live?	Would you mind telling me where you live?
When did you buy it?	Can you tell me when you bought it?
Is the product new?	Do you know if the product is new?

✎ EXERCISE 2.7 - MAKE INDIRECT QUESTIONS

1) What is your phone number? Could you tell me _____? 2) Why did you cancel? May I ask _____? 3) Is it working? Do you know _____?

Check your answers in Appendix A

2.8 Small Words that Matter

Topic	Rule	Examples
Articles	a / an = one (first time). the = known. No article for general plural.	I need a refund. The refund is ready. We love customers.
Countable	many, few, a few, number of	many calls, a few minutes
Uncountable	much, little, a little, amount of	much time, a little help, some information
Time	in (month, year), on (day, date), at (clock time)	in June, on Monday, at 9 a.m.
Place	in (inside), on (surface), at (point)	in the office, on the website, at the desk
Comparatives	short: -er than / long: more + adjective	faster than, more helpful than
Superlatives	short: the -est / long: the most + adjective	the fastest, the most important

✎ EXERCISE 2.8 - FILL THE GAPS

1) I have ____ (a / an) idea. 2) We have ____ (much / many) customers today. 3) The meeting is ____ (in / on / at) Monday ____ (in / on / at) 10 a.m. 4) This plan is ____ (cheap) than that one. 5) She is ____ (good) agent in the team.

Check your answers in Appendix A

2.9 Conditionals: If...

Type	Form	Example
Zero (always true)	If + present, present	If you press 1, you hear the main menu.
First (real future)	If + present, will + verb	If you hold, I will check it for you.
Second (imagine)	If + past, would + verb	If I were you, I would call the bank.

★ TIP

Use "If I were you" for advice. In formal English, we say "if I were", not "if I was".

✎ EXERCISE 2.9 - COMPLETE

1) If you (send) ____ the photo, I (process) ____ the refund. 2) If I (be) ____ you, I (check) ____ the settings. 3) If you (not / pay) ____ today, the service (stop) ____.

2.10 Linking Words: Make Longer Answers

Short answers sound weak in interviews. Use linking words to give reasons, examples, and results.

Purpose	Words	Example
Add	and, also, as well	I speak English and I type fast.
Contrast	but, however, although	I was nervous, but I stayed calm.
Reason	because, since	I like sales because I enjoy talking to people.
Result	so, therefore	The customer was angry, so I apologized.
Example	for example, such as	I improved, for example, by listening to calls.
Order	first, then, after that, finally	First I listened. Then I checked. Finally I confirmed.

✎ EXERCISE 2.10 - JOIN THE SENTENCES

1) I like customer service. I enjoy helping people. (because) 2) The customer was upset. I apologized. (so) 3) I have no experience. I learn fast. (but) 4) I checked the system. I called the customer. (then)

- ☐ Tell a short story in the past simple, with 3 or more irregular verbs.
- ☐ Say how long I have done something with for and since.
- ☐ Make 5 polite requests and 3 indirect questions.
- ☐ Give an interview answer with because, so, and for example.

Word Power

Vocabulary for the workplace, service, and sales

Level A2 to B1

Time: Weeks 6-7 Skills: Vocabulary, Reading, Speaking

BY THE END OF THIS MODULE YOU CAN

- ✓ Use 150+ useful words and phrases for customer service and sales.
- ✓ Use collocations (words that go together) and phrasal verbs naturally.
- ✓ Describe yourself and your skills with strong, professional adjectives.

IN THIS MODULE

- ▶ 3.1 Customer Service Vocabulary
- ▶ 3.2 Sales Vocabulary
- ▶ 3.3 Collocations: Words That Go Together
- ▶ 3.4 Phrasal Verbs for Work
- ▶ 3.5 Words to Describe Yourself
- ▶ 3.6 Positive Language: Say It the Right Way

✎ NOTE

How to learn vocabulary: do NOT write only the Arabic meaning. For every new word, write (1) the word with its stress, (2) a short example sentence about YOUR job or life, and (3) say it aloud 3 times. Review the list after 1 day, 1 week, and 1 month.

3.1 Customer Service Vocabulary

Word	Meaning	Example
customer	a person who buys or uses a service	The customer is always right.
complaint	a statement that you are not happy	He made a complaint about the delay.
refund	money you get back	I would like a refund, please.
order	a request to buy something	Your order is on its way.
invoice / bill	a document that shows how much to pay	I sent you the invoice by email.
delivery	bringing something to the customer	Delivery takes three days.

rapport	a friendly, trusting relationship	Good agents build rapport quickly.
retention	keeping existing customers	Retention is cheaper than finding new ones.
competitor	a rival company	Our competitor has a lower price.
value	the worth you get for the price	This plan gives you great value.

3.3 Collocations: Words That Go Together

Native speakers use fixed word pairs. Using them makes your English sound natural. Learn the whole phrase, not only one word.

Verb	Goes with...	Example sentence
make	a decision, a mistake, an effort, a call	I made a call to the billing team.
do	a job, your best, research, a favor	I always do my best for the customer.
take	a message, a break, action, responsibility	I took a message for my manager.
solve / fix	a problem, an issue	We solved the problem quickly.
handle	a complaint, a call, pressure	She handles complaints very well.
meet	a target, a deadline, a customer's needs	I met my target for six months.
give	feedback, advice, an example	Let me give you an example.
provide	support, information, a solution	We provide 24/7 support.
keep	a promise, calm, a record	I always keep my promises.

Verb	Goes with...	Example sentence
raise	a concern, a ticket, an issue	He raised a concern about the price.

3.4 Phrasal Verbs for Work

A phrasal verb is a verb + a small word (up, out, back...). The meaning is often different from the single words. Call center agents use them every day.

Phrasal verb	Meaning	Example
call back	phone again	I will call you back in ten minutes.
hold on	wait	Hold on, please. I'm checking.
look up	search for information	Let me look up your order.
find out	discover information	I will find out and tell you.
set up	arrange, install	I can set up your account today.
sort out	solve	We will sort out the problem.
follow up	contact again	I will follow up next week.
put through	connect a call	I will put you through to billing.
hang up	end a call	The customer hung up.
fill in	complete a form	Please fill in this form.
sign up	register	You can sign up online.
carry on	continue	Please carry on, I'm listening.
go over	review	Let's go over the details again.
turn down	refuse	He turned down the offer.

✎ EXERCISE 3.1 - CHOOSE THE CORRECT PHRASAL VERB

(call back / hold on / look up / sort out / put through)

1) Could you ____, please? I'm checking the system. 2) I will ____ your account details now. 3) I'll ____ you to our technical team. 4) We will ____ this problem today. 5) I can't talk now. Can I ____ you in an hour?

3.5 Words to Describe Yourself

In an interview, use specific adjectives with a short example. "I am hardworking" is good. "I am hardworking: I never missed a shift in two years" is excellent.

Adjective	Meaning	Say this reliable	people can depend on you	I am reliable. I am always on time.
patient	calm when waiting or dealing with problems	I stay patient with angry customers.
adaptable	can change easily	I am adaptable. I learned the new system in a week.
organized	keeps things in order	I am organized. I use a daily to-do list.

Adjective	Meaning	Say this
motivated	wants to succeed	I am motivated by targets and results.
confident	believes in yourself	I speak with confidence on the phone.
a fast learner	learns quickly	I am a fast learner who accepts feedback.
a team player	works well with others	I am a team player. I help new colleagues.
detail-oriented	notices small details	I am detail-oriented. I double-check numbers.
positive	looks at the good side	I keep a positive attitude under pressure.

3.6 Positive Language: Say It the Right Way

The words you choose change how the customer feels. Use positive language: say what you CAN do, not only what you cannot.

Negative (avoid)	Positive (use)
I can't send it today.	I can send it tomorrow morning.
You didn't give me the number.	Could you please give me the number?
That is not possible.	Here is what we can do...
We don't have it in stock.	It will be in stock next week. Shall I reserve one for you?
You have to wait.	It will take about five minutes. Thank you for waiting.

✎ EXERCISE 3.2 - MAKE IT POSITIVE

1) "I can't help you with that." 2) "You are wrong." 3) "We don't do refunds." 4) "I don't know."

MODULE 4

Telephone English

How to run a professional call from start to finish

Level B1

Time: Week 8 Skills: Speaking, Listening, Pronunciation

BY THE END OF THIS MODULE YOU CAN

- ✓ Follow the 7 steps of a professional call and use the right phrases for each step.
- ✓ Ask for repetition, clarify, and check information politely.
- ✓ Use your voice (tone, speed, smile) to sound friendly and confident.

IN THIS MODULE

- ▶ 4.1 The 7 Steps of a Good Call
- ▶ 4.2 Phrases for Every Moment of the Call
- ▶ 4.3 Understanding Different Accents
- ▶ 4.4 Your Voice: Tone, Speed, and Smile

4.1 The 7 Steps of a Good Call

Step	What you do	Key phrases
1	Greet	Thank you for calling [Company]. My name is [Name]. How may I help you today?
2	Verify	May I have your full name and account number, please? For security, could you confirm your date of birth?
3	Listen	I see. / Go on, please. / Let me make sure I understand...
4	Empathize	I understand how frustrating that must be. I am sorry for the trouble.
5	Solve	Here is what I am going to do... / Let me check that for you.
6	Confirm	Does that solve the issue for you? Is everything clear?
7	Close	Is there anything else I can help you with? Thank you for calling. Have a great day!

★ TIP

Use the customer's name 2 or 3 times during the call, not in every sentence. It builds trust. Too much sounds fake.

4.2 Phrases for Every Moment of the Call

Moment	Say this
Customer speaks fast	Could you speak a little more slowly, please? / I want to make sure I get everything.
Bad line	I'm sorry, the line is not very clear. Could you repeat that, please?
You did not understand	I'm sorry, I didn't catch that. Could you say it again?
Check what you heard	Let me check that. You said your order number is 4-5-7, is that right?
Before you hold	May I place you on hold for a moment while I check?

Moment	Say this
After holding	Thank you for holding. I appreciate your patience.
Long wait	I'm sorry for the wait. I'm still checking, it will take another two minutes.
Transfer	I am going to transfer you to our billing team. I will explain your case, so you won't need to repeat it.
Callback	I will call you back by 3 p.m. today. Is this the best number to reach you?
End the call	Thank you for calling [Company]. Have a wonderful day!

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

When you repeat information (numbers, names, emails), say it slowly in small groups and use a rising voice at the end: "Four, five, seven...? Is that right?"

4.3 Understanding Different Accents

Customers can speak with different accents and speeds. This is normal. Do not panic. Use these strategies:

- Listen for the KEY words first (numbers, names, problem words) and not every single word.
- Take notes while the customer speaks. Write the main points.
- Repeat in your own words: "So, if I understand correctly, you ordered on Monday and it has not arrived."
- Ask for a repeat at once. It is better to ask than to guess.
- Practice every day with real accents: British, American, Indian, Australian. Watch short interviews and customer service role-plays with subtitles, then without.

4.4 Your Voice: Tone, Speed, and Smile

- Smile when you speak. The customer can hear it in your voice.
- Speak at a medium speed. Slow down for numbers, names, and instructions.
- Use pauses. A short pause after each idea helps the customer follow you.
- Use falling intonation for statements ("I can help you with that.") and rising intonation for Yes/No questions ("Is that correct?").
- Sit up straight, drink water, and avoid eating or typing loudly during the call.

☎ CALL 1 - A DELIVERY PROBLEM (FULL CALL)

Agent: Thank you for calling FastShop. My name is Mohamed. How may I help you today?

Customer: Hi, my order has not arrived and it's already five days late.

Agent: I'm sorry to hear that. I understand how frustrating this is. May I have your order number, please?

Customer: Yes, it's 4-5-7-8-9-2.

Agent: Thank you. Let me check that for you. May I place you on a brief hold?

Customer: Okay.

Agent: Thank you for holding. I can see that the package is at the local delivery center. I will arrange priority delivery, and it will arrive tomorrow before 6 p.m.

Customer: Great. Thank you.

Agent: You're welcome. Is there anything else I can help you with today?

Customer: No, that's all.

Agent: Thank you for calling FastShop. Have a wonderful day!

☎ CALL 2 - UNDERSTANDING A CUSTOMER (CLARIFYING)

Agent: Good morning, thank you for calling. How can I help?

Customer: Hi, I have a problem with my internet, it has not worked since yesterday, and I tried everything.

Agent: I'm sorry about that. Just to make sure I understand: your internet stopped working yesterday, and you have already restarted the router. Is that right?

Customer: Yes, exactly.

Agent: Thank you. Could you tell me what lights you can see on the router?

Customer: There is a red light.

Agent: I see. A red light usually means there is no signal. I will check the line from my side. Please hold for one minute.

✎ EXERCISE 4.1 - PUT THE CALL IN THE CORRECT ORDER

a) Thank you for calling. Have a great day! b) How may I help you today? c) Is there anything else I can help you with? d) Thank you for calling Mega Phone. My name is Sara. e) Let me check that for you. f) May I have your name and account number?

Write the correct order, for example: d, b, ...

▶ SPEAKING TASK

Role-play 1: Work with a partner (or record yourself playing both roles). Customer: "My phone bill is higher than usual." Agent: complete all 7 steps of the call. Time: 3 minutes. Then listen and tick every step you did.

✓ MODULE 4 CHECKLIST - I CAN

- ☐ Open and close a call professionally with the correct phrases.
- ☐ Spell a name and confirm a number clearly.
- ☐ Put a customer on hold and transfer a call politely.
- ☐ Ask a customer to repeat without sounding rude.

MODULE 5

Customer Service Skills

Handling complaints, emotions, and difficult calls

Level B1

Time: Weeks 9-10 Skills: Speaking, Listening, Problem solving

BY THE END OF THIS MODULE YOU CAN

- ✓ Show empathy and apologize in a natural, professional way.
- ✓ Handle angry customers calmly with a clear step-by-step method.
- ✓ Say "no" politely and offer alternatives.

IN THIS MODULE

- ▶ 5.1 The Golden Formula for Any Complaint
- ▶ 5.2 Empathy and Apology: Choose the Right Level
- ▶ 5.3 Saying No Politely
- ▶ 5.4 De-escalation: Calming an Angry Customer
- ▶ 5.5 Common Call Types and Useful Language

5.1 The Golden Formula for Any Complaint

Step	What you do	Example phrases
L - Listen	Let the customer finish. Do not interrupt. Take notes.	I see. / Go on, please. / I'm listening.
E - Empathize	Show that you understand the feeling.	I completely understand how frustrating this is.
A - Apologize	Say sorry, even if it is not your fault.	I'm very sorry for the inconvenience.
S - Solve	Offer a clear solution with steps and time.	Here is what I'm going to do. It will take 10 minutes.
C - Confirm	Check that the customer is happy.	Does that work for you? Is there anything else?
F - Follow up	Keep your promise and check the result.	I will call you tomorrow to make sure it's fixed.

★ TIP

Never say "Calm down." It makes the customer angrier. Say "I understand you're upset, and I want to help."

5.2 Empathy and Apology: Choose the Right Level

Situation	Phrases
Small problem	Sorry about that. / I apologize for the delay.
Medium problem	I'm sorry for the inconvenience. I understand how annoying this is.
Big problem	I'm very sorry. That is not the experience we want you to have. I completely understand why you are upset.
Our mistake	I apologize for our mistake. Let me fix this right away.
Customer's feeling	I can hear that you're frustrated, and you have every right to be.

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

Empathy lives in your VOICE. Use a lower, slower, softer tone. A fast, high voice sounds like you are not interested, even when your words are kind.

5.3 Saying No Politely

Use this pattern: Empathy + Clear reason + What I CAN do + Next step.

Situation	Polite response
Refund not allowed	I understand why you want a refund. Unfortunately, the 30-day period has ended. What I can do is offer you an exchange or store credit. Which would you prefer?
Against policy	I'm sorry, I'm not able to do that because it protects your account security. I can help you in another way: ...
Not available	That item is not available at the moment. I can reserve one for you when it arrives next week. Would you like that?
Asking for the manager	I will be happy to help you right away. If you still prefer, I'll connect you with my supervisor.

✎ EXERCISE 5.1 - SAY IT NICELY

Rewrite each sentence so it is polite and positive.

1) We can't give you a refund. 2) You must send the receipt. 3) Our system is down, call later. 4) That is not our fault.

Check your answers in Appendix A

5.4 De-escalation: Calming an Angry Customer

- Stay calm and keep your voice low. Do not take it personally.
- Let the customer speak first. Often they only need to feel heard.
- Use the customer's name and show empathy at once.
- Move to the solution. Give choices: "Would you prefer A or B?"
- Be honest about time. Do not promise what you cannot do.
- If the customer is abusive: give one polite warning, then follow the company procedure (transfer or end the call).

Do say	Do not say
I understand you're upset, and I want to help.	Calm down.
Let me look into this right now.	That's not my department.
What I can do is...	I can't do anything.
I'll take care of this personally.	It's the system's fault.
Thank you for your patience.	You should have read the terms.

☎ CALL 3 - AN ANGRY CUSTOMER (DE-ESCALATION)

Customer: This is the third time I'm calling! Nobody can fix my problem. This is ridiculous!

Agent: I'm very sorry that you had to call three times, Mr. Ahmed. That is not the experience we want you to have. I'm going to take care of this personally. May I ask what happened?

Customer: I was charged twice for my subscription and nobody refunds me.

Agent: Thank you for explaining. I can see the double charge on your account. I'm sorry about that. I will start the refund now, and it will appear in your account within three working days. I will also send you an email confirmation in the next five minutes.

Customer: Okay. I hope this time it works.

Agent: I understand your worry. My name is Mohamed, and my direct line is on the email. I will follow up on Thursday to make sure the money is back. Is there anything else I can help you with?

Customer: No. Thank you for your help.

☎ CALL 4 - SAYING NO POLITELY (REFUND POLICY)

Customer: I bought these headphones 45 days ago and they stopped working. I want my money back.

Agent: I'm sorry to hear that. I understand how disappointing it is when a new product stops working.

Customer: So, can I get a refund?

Agent: Unfortunately, our refund policy is 30 days, so I'm not able to refund the full amount. However, the headphones are still under warranty, so I can replace them for free. Would you like me to arrange that?

Customer: Hmm... okay, replacement is fine.

Agent: Perfect. I will send you a prepaid label by email, and the new pair will arrive in three to five days. Is there anything else I can do for you?

5.5 Common Call Types and Useful Language

Call type	Useful phrases
Billing	I can see the charge on your account. / The extra amount is because of... / I'll adjust the invoice.
Delivery	Your parcel is currently at... / It should arrive by... / I'll contact the courier.
Technical	Could you restart the device? / Please open Settings and click on... / Let me guide you step by step.
Cancellation	I'm sorry to hear you want to leave. May I ask the reason? / We can offer you a better plan...
Product info	This model has... / It comes with a two-year warranty. / The difference between them is...
Complaint	I apologize for the experience. / I'll record your complaint and escalate it.

▶ SPEAKING TASK

Role-play 2 (5 minutes): Customer: "I was charged twice and I'm very angry." Agent: use Listen - Empathize - Apologize - Solve - Confirm - Follow up. Role-play 3: Customer: "I want a refund but I lost the receipt." Agent: say no politely and offer another option. Record both. Check your tone: lower, slower, softer.

✓ MODULE 5 CHECKLIST - I CAN

- ☐ Use the formula L-E-A-S-C-F in a role-play without notes.
- ☐ Apologize at the right level for small, medium, and big problems.
- ☐ Say "no" politely and always give an alternative.
- ☐ Stay calm and use de-escalation phrases with an angry customer.

MODULE 6

Sales English

Persuading customers honestly and closing the sale

Level B1

Time: Weeks 11-12 Skills: Speaking, Listening, Persuasion

BY THE END OF THIS MODULE YOU CAN

- ✓ Follow the 6 steps of a sales call and use the right language for each.
- ✓ Ask good questions to discover what the customer needs.
- ✓ Handle objections and close the sale with confidence.

IN THIS MODULE

- ▶ 6.1 The 6 Steps of a Sales Call
- ▶ 6.2 Asking Good Questions
- ▶ 6.3 Features and Benefits
- ▶ 6.4 Handling Objections
- ▶ 6.5 Closing the Sale

6.1 The 6 Steps of a Sales Call

Step	Goal	Example phrases
1	Open	Good morning, this is Mohamed from [Company]. Do you have two minutes to talk?
2	Discover needs	What are you looking for? What matters most to you? What problem do you want to solve?
3	Present	Based on what you told me, I recommend... It has [feature], which means you can [benefit].
4	Handle objections	I understand. May I ask what worries you? Let me show you the value...
5	Close	Shall I go ahead and place the order? Would you prefer the blue or the black one?
6	Follow up	I will send you the details today and call you on Thursday. Does that work?

★ TIP

In every sales call, ask questions first, listen 70% of the time, and talk 30%. The customer's own words about their problem are the best sales tool.

6.2 Asking Good Questions

Open questions start with What, How, Why, Which, Tell me about... They make the customer talk. Closed questions give Yes or No answers. Use open questions to discover, and closed questions to confirm and close.

Open (discover)	Closed (confirm and close)
What do you use your phone for?	Do you take many photos?
How is your current plan working for you?	Is the price your main concern?
Which features are most important to you?	Would you like the 128 GB version?

Open (discover)	Closed (confirm and close)
Tell me about your daily routine.	Shall I send you the offer by email?

✎ EXERCISE 6.1 - OPEN OR CLOSED?

Write O (open) or C (closed).

1) What are you looking for? 2) Do you need delivery? 3) How do you plan to use it? 4) Is the budget under $500? 5) Why is speed important to you?

Check your answers in Appendix A

6.3 Features and Benefits

A feature is what the product HAS. A benefit is what it DOES for the customer. Customers buy benefits. Use the bridge phrases: "which means", "so you can", "that's why".

Feature	Bridge	Benefit
The battery lasts 24 hours	which means	you never worry about charging at work
The laptop weighs 1.2 kg	so you can	carry it easily when you travel
The plan has unlimited data	that's why	you can watch videos without stopping
The gym has 24/7 access	which means	you can train at any time that suits you

✎ EXERCISE 6.2 - MAKE BENEFIT SENTENCES

Complete the sentences.

1) The phone has a great camera, which means _____. 2) The plan is monthly, so you can _____. 3) The warranty is two years, so you _____.

Check your answers in Appendix A

6.4 Handling Objections

Remember the 5 steps: ACKNOWLEDGE, ASK, VALUE, OPTION, NEXT STEP.

Objection	Possible response
"It's too expensive."	I understand price is important. May I ask what you are comparing it with? This plan includes [value], so it saves you money in the long term. We also have a more affordable option if you prefer.
"I'm not interested."	I understand. Just so I do not waste your time, is it the timing or the product? Many customers felt the same until they saw [benefit]. May I take one minute to show you?
"I need to think about it."	Of course, it's an important decision. Is there a specific part you are unsure about? I can send you the details and call you tomorrow at 4 p.m. Is that okay?
"I'll buy somewhere else."	That's your choice. May I ask what offer you found? Please also compare the warranty, support, and delivery. If I can match [benefit], would you buy today?
"I don't need it."	I understand. How do you currently handle [problem]? This can help you with [benefit]. If it's not the right time, may I keep you updated?
"Your competitor is cheaper."	Price matters. Let's compare the full value: quality, warranty, and service. A cheaper option may cost more later.

6.5 Closing the Sale

Closing type	Example
Direct close	Shall I go ahead and place the order for you?
Choice close	Would you prefer the monthly plan or the yearly plan?
Assumptive close	Which delivery date works best for you, Monday or Tuesday?
Summary close	So you get [benefit 1], [benefit 2], and [benefit 3] for $29 a month. Shall we start today?
Urgency (honest)	This offer ends on Friday. I can lock it in for you today.
Upsell	For only $5 more, you can get double the storage. Many customers prefer it.
Cross-sell	Since you are buying the phone, would you like a case and a screen protector?

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

When you ask for the sale, slow down, smile, and use a confident, falling voice on statements. Do not rush the closing question. Silence after the question is normal. Let the customer answer.

☎ CALL 5 - A FULL SALES CALL

Agent: Good afternoon, this is Mohamed from SmartTech. Do you have two minutes to talk?

Customer: Yes, but I'm busy.

Agent: Thank you, I'll be quick. May I ask how you use your phone every day?

Customer: Mostly for work and photos.

Agent: I see. What is the biggest problem with your current phone?

Customer: The battery dies by 3 p.m.

Agent: That sounds frustrating. Our new model has a 24-hour battery, which means you can work all day without charging. It also has a great camera for your photos.

Customer: It sounds good, but it's expensive.

Agent: I understand. May I ask what budget you have in mind?

Customer: Around $400.

Agent: We have a model at $399 with the same battery. Shall I place the order for you today?

Customer: Okay, let's do it.

Agent: Wonderful. For only $10 more, I can add a protective case. Would you like that?

▶ SPEAKING TASK

Role-play 4: Sell a product you like to your partner (3 minutes). Use all 6 steps. Your partner uses 2 objections from 6.4. Role-play 5: Close a sale with a hesitant customer who says "I need to think about it". Record both and count how many open questions you asked.

✓ MODULE 6 CHECKLIST - I CAN

- ☐ Follow the 6 steps of a sales call in order.
- ☐ Ask 5 open questions to find the customer's need.
- ☐ Turn 3 features into benefits with "which means".
- ☐ Answer 5 common objections and ask for the sale.

BY THE END OF THIS MODULE YOU CAN

- ✓ Write clear, polite emails and chat replies for customers.
- ✓ Use correct punctuation and a professional tone.
- ✓ Write a short professional summary about yourself.

IN THIS MODULE

- ▶ 7.1 Email Structure and Templates
- ▶ 7.2 Chat Support English
- ▶ 7.3 Punctuation and Capital Letters in Brief

7.1 Email Structure and Templates

A good business email has 5 parts: Subject line, Greeting, Main message, Closing sentence, Sign-off.

Part	Example
Subject	Your refund request - Order #45789
Greeting	Dear Mr. Ahmed, / Hello Sara,
Main message	Thank you for contacting us. I'm sorry that your order arrived late. I have processed your refund, and you will see it in your account within 3 working days.
Closing sentence	Please let me know if you need anything else.
Sign-off	Kind regards, Mohamed Eltatawy, Customer Support

Situation	Template
Apology	Dear [Name], I sincerely apologize for [problem]. We are working to fix it, and I will update you by [time].
Confirmation	Dear [Name], This email confirms that your order #[number] has been [shipped / cancelled / changed]. Please find the details below.
Follow-up	Hello [Name], I'm following up on our call yesterday. Have you had a chance to check [thing]? Please let me know if you have any questions.
Escalation	Dear [Name], I have escalated your case to our specialist team. Your reference number is [number]. They will contact you within [time].
Saying no	Dear [Name], Thank you for your request. Unfortunately, we are not able to [request] because [reason]. However, we can offer you [alternative].

★ TIP

Keep emails short. One idea per paragraph. Use simple words: "help" not "assist", "use" not "utilize", "send" not "forward", unless your company asks for formal language.

7.2 Chat Support English

Chat is faster than email. Use short sentences, a friendly tone, and answer in a few seconds. Do not use slang or too many emojis.

Moment	Chat message
Welcome	Hi, thank you for contacting [Company]. My name is Mohamed. How can I help you today?
Wait	Thank you for waiting. I'm checking this for you now.
Need time	Could you give me 2 minutes while I look into this? I will stay with you in the chat.
Instructions	Please follow these steps: 1) Open Settings. 2) Click Account. 3) Select Reset password.
Check	Did that solve the issue? Is there anything else I can help you with?
Close	Thank you for chatting with us. Have a lovely day!

✎ EXERCISE 7.1 - FIX THE MISTAKES

Rewrite the sentences correctly.

1) i am agree with you on that 2) she dont know the answer 3) Please wait I check 4) We are sorry for the inconvinience 5) Thanks you for your patient

Check your answers in Appendix A

7.3 Punctuation and Capital Letters in Brief

Rule	Example
Capital letter at the start of a sentence, names, days, months, and the word I	I spoke to Sara on Monday.
Full stop (.) at the end of a statement	Your order is ready.
Question mark (?) at the end of a question	Can I help you?
Comma (,) in lists and after introductory words	First, I checked. Then, I called.
Apostrophe (') for short forms and possession	I'm, don't, the customer's account

✎ EXERCISE 7.2 - WRITE YOUR PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Write 4 to 5 sentences about yourself for your CV or LinkedIn. Use this model: I am a [adjective] [job] with [X] years of experience in [field]. I am good at [skill 1] and [skill 2]. I [achievement]. I am looking for [goal].

Check your answers in Appendix A

✓ MODULE 7 CHECKLIST - I CAN

- ☐ Write an apology email and a confirmation email in 5 minutes.
- ☐ Write 5 chat replies in a friendly, professional style.
- ☐ Use capital letters and punctuation correctly.
- ☐ Write a 4-sentence professional summary about myself.

Fluency and Pronunciation Lab

Rhythm, intonation, and speaking naturally

Level B1

Time: Weeks 14-15 (and every day after) Skills: Pronunciation, Fluency, Listening

BY THE END OF THIS MODULE YOU CAN

- ✓ Use sentence stress, rhythm, and intonation so people understand you easily.
- ✓ Link words and use natural short forms when you listen.
- ✓ Practice every day with a simple routine and track your progress.

IN THIS MODULE

- ▶ 8.1 Sentence Stress and Rhythm
- ▶ 8.2 Intonation: The Music of English
- ▶ 8.3 Linking and Natural Speech
- ▶ 8.4 Chunking and Pausing
- ▶ 8.5 Your Daily 20-Minute Speaking Routine

8.1 Sentence Stress and Rhythm

English is a stress-timed language. Important words (content words) are strong and clear. Small words (function words) are weak and fast. If you stress every word equally, you sound robotic and customers find you hard to follow.

Strong words (content)	Weak words (function)
nouns: order, account, problem	articles: a, an, the main verbs: check, send, solve	auxiliaries: is, are, was, do, have adjectives: angry, late, new	pronouns: he, she, it, you, we negatives: not, never, can't	prepositions: to, of, for, in, at

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

Say this sentence with the stress on the CAPITALS only: "I will CHECK your ACcount and CALL you BACK toDAY." The small words go fast and quiet.

✎ EXERCISE 8.1 - FIND THE STRESS

Mark the 3 strongest words in each sentence.

1) I'm sorry for the delay. 2) Could you give me your order number? 3) I will send you the invoice today.

Check your answers in Appendix A

8.2 Intonation: The Music of English

Pattern	Use	Example
Falling (down)	statements, Wh- questions, ending a list	I can help you with that. What is your name?
Rising (up)	Yes/No questions, checking, polite requests	Is that correct? Could you hold, please?
Fall-rise	"I'm not sure" or checking, a polite no	Unfortunately, I can't do that...
Lists	rise on each item, fall on the last	We have red, blue, green, and black.

★ TIP

A flat voice is the #1 reason fluent speakers sound "robotic" on calls. Exaggerate the music in practice, and it will sound natural in real calls.

8.3 Linking and Natural Speech

Native speakers do not say words separately. They link them. You do not need to copy every reduction, but you MUST understand them when you listen.

Written	Often sounds like	Meaning want to	"wanna"	I want to help you.
going to	"gonna"	I'm going to check.
could you	"couldja"	Could you hold?
what do you	"whaddaya"	What do you need?
give me	"gimme"	Give me a moment.
a lot of	"a lotta"	a lot of calls

♪ PRONUNCIATION FOCUS

Linking: a consonant at the end of a word moves to the vowel at the start of the next word. "Check it out" sounds like "che-ki-tout". "An order" sounds like "a-norder". Say them quickly and smoothly.

8.4 Chunking and Pausing

Do not say words one by one. Say groups of 3 to 5 words (chunks) with a tiny pause between them. Chunking makes you sound fluent and gives you time to think.

☎ CHUNK YOUR SENTENCE (PRACTICE WITH SLASHES)

Agent: Thank you for calling / My name is Mohamed / How may I help you today?

Agent: I understand your concern / and I will check / your account now.

Agent: Unfortunately / I'm not able to do that / but what I can do / is offer you an exchange.

✎ EXERCISE 8.2 - TONGUE TWISTERS (SAY EACH 3 TIMES, SLOWLY, THEN FASTER)

1) She sells seashells by the seashore. 2) Three thin thieves thought they thrilled the throng. 3) Very big vans move various vegetables. 4) Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Check your answers in Appendix A

8.5 Your Daily 20-Minute Speaking Routine

Time	Activity
3 min	Warm up: tongue twisters and sounds you find difficult.
7 min	Shadowing: play a short clip (call center role-play, interview, or news). Listen to one sentence, pause, and repeat it with the same speed, stress, and music.
7 min	Answer 3 interview questions aloud from Module 9. Record yourself.
3 min	Listen back. Write 1 mistake and 1 good thing. Fix the mistake tomorrow.

Self-rating (1 = weak, 5 = strong)	Week 1	Week 4	Week 8	Week 12
Clear sounds
Word and sentence stress
Intonation (music)
Speed and pauses
Confidence

▶ SPEAKING TASK

Record the same text (for example "Tell me about yourself") in Week 1, Week 4, Week 8, and Week 12. Compare the recordings. You will hear your progress, and progress is the best motivation.

✓ MODULE 8 CHECKLIST - I CAN

- ☐ Stress the content words and say small words quickly.
- ☐ Use falling and rising intonation correctly in questions and statements.
- ☐ Understand "wanna", "gonna", and "couldja" in fast speech.
- ☐ Complete my 20-minute routine at least 5 days a week.

9.1 How Call Center Hiring Works

Every company is a little different, but many call center hiring processes follow similar stages. Knowing them removes fear.

Stage	What happens	How to prepare
1. Application	You send your CV or fill an online form.	Check spelling. Keep the CV to 1 page. Use the summary from Module 7.
2. HR phone screening	A short call (5-10 minutes). Questions about you, availability, shifts, and salary.	Practice "Tell me about yourself" and the shifts and salary questions.
3. Language assessment	A spoken English test, listening, reading aloud, and often a typing test.	Do the Module 8 routine. Practice reading aloud slowly and clearly.
4. Role-play or assessment day	You play an agent with a difficult customer or a sales scenario. Sometimes a group activity.	Modules 4, 5, and 6. Use the formulas and stay calm.
5. Final interview	An operations manager asks behavioral and situational questions.	Prepare 3 STAR stories and the questions in this module.
6. Offer	You receive an offer, sign documents, and begin training.	Ask about the training, schedule, and KPIs.

✎ NOTE

Always check your own company's process and ask the recruiter what to expect. Preparation reduces stress.

9.2 How to Build a Great Answer

Part	What to do	Example
1. Direct answer	Answer the question in the first sentence.	"I stay calm and listen first."
2. Example or reason	Give a short real example, with STAR for stories.	"In my last job, a customer called very angry about a late order..."
3. Link to the job	Finish with a result and connect it to this job.	"This is why I am confident I can handle difficult calls here."

STAR step	What to say
S - Situation	Where were you and what was happening? (1-2 sentences)
T - Task	What was your responsibility or goal?
A - Action	What exactly did YOU do? (the longest part)
R - Result	What was the result? Use numbers if possible. What did you learn?

★ TIP

Aim for 30 to 90 seconds per answer. Less than 20 seconds sounds weak. More than 2 minutes loses the interviewer. Do not memorize word for word: learn the structure and the key phrases.

9.3 Golden Rules for the Interview

Do	Do not
Speak slowly and clearly. Smile.	Memorize paragraphs and recite them like a robot.
Give real examples with numbers.	Speak badly about a previous job or manager.
Research the company: 3 facts.	Say "I don't know" without a solution: "Let me find out and..."
Be honest about shifts, targets, and experience.	Give one-word answers or speeches longer than 2 minutes.
Ask 2 or 3 questions at the end.	Argue with the interviewer in a role-play. Stay calm and polite.

9.4 Your 15-Day Interview Study Plan

Study the questions below in this order. Each day: read 10 questions, answer them OUT LOUD without looking, record yourself, and repeat the hardest ones.

Day	Questions	What to do
Day 1	Questions 1 - 10	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 2	Questions 11 - 20	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 3	Questions 21 - 30	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 4	Questions 31 - 40	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 5	Questions 41 - 50	Read, answer out loud, record, review

Day	Questions	What to do
Day 6	Questions 51 - 60	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 7	Questions 61 - 70	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 8	Questions 71 - 80	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 9	Questions 81 - 90	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 10	Questions 91 - 100	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 11	Questions 101 - 110	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 12	Questions 111 - 120	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 13	Questions 121 - 125	Read, answer out loud, record, review
Day 14	Mock Set A	Full mock interview (see 9.14). Score yourself.
Day 15	Mock Sets B and C	Two mock interviews. Fix your weakest area.

9.5 Basic / Personal Questions

1 Tell me about yourself.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Thank you for having me. My name is [Name], and I have [X years] of experience in [customer service / sales]. In my last position as [job title] at [company], I handled [calls / chats / emails] every day and helped customers solve their problems quickly and politely.

I am a patient person, a good listener, and I communicate clearly in English. I enjoy working with people, and I like fast, target-driven environments. That is why I am very excited about this opportunity, and I believe I can bring energy and professionalism to your team.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Keep it to 60-90 seconds. Formula: Present (who you are now) - Past (experience) - Future (why this job). If you are a fresh graduate, replace the experience with your studies, volunteer work, or part-time jobs.

2 Walk me through your previous work experience.

SAMPLE ANSWER

I started my career at [Company 1] as a [position], where I [answered around X calls per day, solved customer issues, and updated the CRM system]. After [time], I moved to [Company 2] as a [position], where I improved my skills in communication, problem solving, and handling pressure.

In my most recent role, I achieved [a 95% customer satisfaction score / my monthly target for six months in a row]. These experiences taught me to stay calm and always put the customer first.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

If you have no experience: "Although I don't have direct call center experience, I have worked as [..], and I developed strong communication, teamwork and problem-solving skills that I can apply here."

3 Why do you want to work in customer service?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I enjoy helping people, and customer service gives me the chance to do that every day. I love the moment when a customer calls with a problem and leaves happy. I also believe customer service is the face of the company, so it is a role with real responsibility. It is a great place to build my communication, problem-solving, and patience skills, and I want to grow my career in this field.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

4 Why did you choose customer service as a career?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I discovered that I am naturally good at listening and explaining things clearly, and people often ask me for help. Customer service lets me use these strengths and learn something new every day. It also offers a clear career path, from agent to senior agent, team leader, and beyond. That is why I chose it as a long-term career, not just a temporary job.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

5 Why are you looking for a new opportunity?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I learned a lot in my previous job, but I feel I have reached a point where I need new challenges and more room to grow. I am looking for a company with strong training and a clear career path, and your company has a great reputation for that.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Never speak badly about your previous employer or manager. Stay positive and talk about growth.

6 Why should we hire you?

SAMPLE ANSWER

You should hire me because I bring a strong mix of English communication, patience, and a real passion for helping customers. I learn fast, I accept feedback, and I stay calm under pressure. I am also reliable: I am punctual and committed to my targets. I am confident I can start contributing quickly and become a valuable member of your team.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

7 What are your greatest strengths?

SAMPLE ANSWER

My three main strengths are communication, patience, and problem solving. I can explain things clearly and make customers feel understood. I stay calm even with difficult customers. And I like finding real solutions instead of passing the problem to someone else. For example, in my previous job, [give a short example of solving a customer's problem].

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Always back each strength with a short real example.

8 What is your biggest weakness?

SAMPLE ANSWER

In the past, I used to spend too much time trying to make every customer perfectly happy, which increased my handling time. I realized I need to balance quality and speed, so now I use templates, set clear time goals for each call, and my average handling time has improved without losing quality.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Choose a real but fixable weakness and always finish with how you are improving it. Avoid saying "I have no weakness" or "I work too hard".

9 Where do you see yourself in three years?

SAMPLE ANSWER

In three years, I see myself as a senior agent or a team leader in this company. I want to master my role first, help train new colleagues, and then take on more responsibility. I am looking for a long-term career, not just a job.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

10 What motivates you at work?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I am motivated by solving customers' problems and hearing them say "thank you". I also enjoy reaching my targets and receiving positive feedback, because it shows me I am improving. Finally, learning new skills and having opportunities to grow keep me motivated every day.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

9.6 Customer Handling Questions

11 How would you handle an angry customer?

SAMPLE ANSWER

First, I stay calm and let the customer speak without interrupting, because often they just need to feel heard. Then I apologize sincerely and show empathy: "I understand how frustrating this is, and I am sorry for the inconvenience."

Next, I ask questions to understand the problem, offer a clear solution, and explain the steps. Finally, I confirm that the customer is satisfied and follow up if needed.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Remember the formula: LISTEN - EMPATHIZE - APOLOGIZE - SOLVE - CONFIRM.

12 What would you do if a customer started shouting at you?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would stay calm and keep my voice low and polite, because getting emotional would make things worse. I would let the customer finish, then say, "I can hear that you are upset, and I really want to help you fix this." Then I focus on the solution.

If the customer continues to be abusive after a polite warning, I would explain that I cannot continue under these conditions and transfer the call to my supervisor, according to company policy.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

13 What if the customer refuses your solution?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would ask politely why the solution does not work for them, so I understand their concern. Then I would offer alternatives: "Would this other option work better for you?" and explain the benefits clearly.

If I have offered every option I am allowed to, I would involve my team leader to look for another solution and thank the customer for their patience.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready 14 What if you don't know the answer to a customer's question?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would be honest and never guess. I would say, "That is a great question. Let me check this for you to make sure I give you the correct information. May I place you on a brief hold?" Then I would check the knowledge base or ask my supervisor.

If it takes longer, I would offer a callback at a specific time, and I would make sure to call back as promised.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

15 What if the customer asks you to break company policy?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would politely explain that I am not able to do that, because the policy protects both the customer and the company. I would say, "I understand why you would like that. Unfortunately, I can't, but here is what I can do for you..." and offer the best alternative within policy. If the customer insists, I would escalate to my supervisor.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

16 How would you deal with a rude customer?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I do not take it personally. I stay professional and polite, use the customer's name, and focus on the issue, not the attitude. Often rudeness comes from frustration, so solving the problem usually calms the customer down. If the rudeness continues, I would give a polite warning and then follow the company procedure.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

17 How would you handle a customer who keeps interrupting you?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would let the customer finish their point when possible, because interrupting often means they feel unheard. Then I would politely say, "Thank you for explaining. May I just ask a few questions so I can fix this quickly for you?" I also summarize what they said to show that I understood, and I speak clearly and calmly.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

18 What would you do if the customer blamed you for something that wasn't your fault?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would not argue or defend myself. I would say, "I am sorry you had this experience. Let me see how I can fix it for you." Whether it is our fault or not, the customer's priority is the solution. After resolving it, I would politely explain the facts if needed and document the case.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

19 How would you deal with a customer who wants a refund that isn't allowed?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would show empathy, explain the policy clearly and politely, and then offer alternatives such as an exchange, store credit, a repair, or a discount. For example: "I am sorry, I can't offer a refund in this case because [reason], but I can offer you [alternative]." If the customer is still unhappy, I would ask my supervisor whether an exception is possible.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

20 What would you do if a customer threatened to leave the company?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would take it seriously. I would thank the customer for telling me, ask what went wrong, and apologize. Then I would solve the problem and, if authorized, offer a retention offer. The goal is to show that we value them. If I cannot solve it, I would transfer the customer to the retention team or my supervisor.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

21 How would you handle multiple customer issues at the same time?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would prioritize by urgency and impact, and acknowledge each customer: "Thank you for your patience, I am helping you now." I handle quick issues fast, write clear notes, and schedule follow-ups for the rest. If needed, I ask my team for support. Staying organized and calm is the key.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

22 What does excellent customer service mean to you?

SAMPLE ANSWER

To me, excellent customer service means solving the problem the first time, with respect, empathy, and clear communication. It also means going the extra mile, making the customer feel valued, and leaving them with a good feeling about the company.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

23 What is more important: customer satisfaction or company policy?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Both are important, and they do not have to conflict. Policies protect the company and keep things fair, so I always follow them. But within the policy, I look for the best way to satisfy the customer and offer alternatives. If a case is exceptional, I would ask my supervisor for guidance.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Never say "customer satisfaction only" or "policy only". Show balance.

24 How do you make a customer feel valued?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I use their name, listen actively, thank them for their time and loyalty, and show empathy. I give them my full attention, follow up on their issue, and add small extras such as "Is there anything else I can help you with today?" Small details make customers feel important.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

25 How would you turn a negative customer experience into a positive one?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would apologize sincerely, take ownership of the problem, and fix it as quickly as possible. Then, if possible, I would add a small gesture, like a discount or a follow-up call. Customers who see a company fix a problem well often become even more loyal than before.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

9.7 Pressure / Behavioral Questions

✎ NOTE

Use the STAR method for every behavioral answer: Situation - Task - Action - Result. Replace the examples below with your own real stories.

26 How do you handle stress and pressure?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I stay calm by prioritizing my tasks, taking deep breaths, and focusing on one customer at a time. I see pressure as a challenge, not a problem. After a stressful day, I relax with [exercise / music / time with family], so I come back fresh the next day.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

27 Tell me about a time you made a mistake at work.

SAMPLE ANSWER

In my previous job, I once gave a customer incorrect information about a delivery time. When I realized it, I immediately told my supervisor, called the customer back, apologized, and gave the correct information. The customer appreciated my honesty. Since then, I always double-check the information before I confirm anything.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Choose a small, real mistake. The interviewer wants honesty and what you learned.

28 Tell me about a time you received negative feedback.

SAMPLE ANSWER

My supervisor once told me that my calls were too long. I did not take it personally. I asked for specific examples and tips, and I practiced using shorter greetings and better questions. Within one month, my handling time improved. I welcome feedback because it helps me grow.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

29 Tell me about a time you solved a difficult problem.

SAMPLE ANSWER

A customer was charged twice, but the second charge did not appear in our system. I contacted the billing team, escalated the case with screenshots as evidence, and kept the customer updated every day. The refund was processed in three days, and the customer thanked me for my follow-up.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

30 Tell me about a time you dealt with a difficult customer.

SAMPLE ANSWER

A customer called very angry because his order was delayed for the third time. I listened without interrupting, apologized, and checked the status. Then I escalated the delivery and gave him my direct follow-up. By the end of the call, he had calmed down and thanked me for my help.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

31 Tell me about a time you worked under pressure.

SAMPLE ANSWER

During our busiest season, the call volume doubled and we were short-staffed. I stayed organized, kept my calls efficient but high quality, and supported my teammates when I could. We met our service level for the month, and my manager recognized my effort.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

32 Tell me about a time you helped a colleague.

SAMPLE ANSWER

A new colleague was struggling with our CRM system. During my break, I showed him shortcuts and shared my notes. He improved quickly, and our team's performance went up. I believe that when the team succeeds, everyone succeeds.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

33 Tell me about a conflict you had with a coworker.

SAMPLE ANSWER

A coworker and I disagreed about how to divide some tasks. I asked to speak with him privately, listened to his point of view, and explained mine calmly. We agreed on a fair schedule. I learned that respectful communication and focusing on the team goal, not the person, solve most conflicts.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

34 Tell me about a time you had to learn something quickly.

SAMPLE ANSWER

When my company changed to a new CRM system, I had only one week to learn it. I attended the training, took notes, practiced with test cases, and asked colleagues questions. By the end of the week, I was working at my normal speed.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

35 Tell me about a time you failed and what you learned from it.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Once I missed my monthly target by about 8%. I analyzed my calls and saw that I was not asking enough questions to understand customers' needs. I asked my team leader for coaching, and the next month I exceeded my target. This taught me to review my performance regularly and ask for help early.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

9.8 Sales Fundamentals

36 Why do you want to work in sales?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I enjoy talking to people, and I am motivated by targets and results. Sales lets me use my communication skills, and I like that my effort is rewarded through commission and growth. I also enjoy the challenge, and I love helping customers find a product that truly solves their problem.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

37 What makes you interested in sales?

SAMPLE ANSWER

What interests me is the mix of communication, psychology, and challenge. Every customer is different, so no two days are the same, and I can see the direct result of my work. I also like that sales skills are valuable in any career.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

38 What do you think makes a successful salesperson?

SAMPLE ANSWER

A successful salesperson has good listening skills, strong product knowledge, confidence, persistence, and honesty. They focus on the customer's needs instead of just pushing a product, they build trust, and they handle rejection in a positive way.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready 39 What is the difference between customer service and sales?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Customer service is mainly about supporting existing customers and solving their problems, while sales is about finding customers' needs and helping them decide to buy. Both need strong communication and empathy, but sales is more proactive and target-driven. In both roles, the goal is to build trust with the customer.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

40 What is more important in sales: listening or speaking?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Listening is more important. When I listen, I discover the customer's needs, budget, and concerns, and then I can speak in a targeted and convincing way. A good rule is to listen 70% of the time and speak 30%.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

41 How do you build rapport with a customer?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I start with a friendly greeting and a smile in my voice, and I use the customer's name. I find common ground, show genuine interest, listen actively, and stay honest. When customers feel comfortable and respected, they trust me and are more open to my suggestions.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

42 How do you identify a customer's needs?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I ask open-ended questions such as "What are you looking for?", "What is most important to you?", and "What problem are you trying to solve?" Then I listen carefully and summarize their needs to confirm: "So you need something that is [..] and within [budget], is that right?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

43 How would you convince a customer to buy a product?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would not push. First, I understand the customer's needs. Then I match the product's features to their benefits, for example, "This will save you time every day." I give proof such as reviews or examples, handle their concerns, and then ask confidently for the sale: "Shall I go ahead and place the order for you?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

44 How do you handle rejection?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I do not take it personally. Rejection is a normal part of sales. When possible, I ask for feedback and learn from it, then I stay positive for the next call. Every "no" brings me closer to a "yes".

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

45 How do you deal with sales pressure and targets?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I enjoy targets because they keep me focused. I break the monthly target into weekly and daily goals, track my progress, review my calls, and ask for coaching when needed. I focus on quality leads and on customer needs, which leads to better results.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

9.9 Objection Handling

✎ NOTE

Objection formula: 1) Acknowledge ("I understand") 2) Ask a question to find the real reason 3) Show value 4) Offer an option 5) Ask for the next step. Never argue and never say "you are wrong".

46 What would you do if a customer says, "It's too expensive"?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "I understand that price is important. May I ask what you are comparing it with?"

Agent: "Let me show you the value. This product has [feature], it lasts longer, and it comes with a warranty and support, so it actually saves you money in the long term."

Agent: "If you prefer, we also have a more affordable model or flexible payment options. Which one would suit you better?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

47 What if the customer says, "I'm not interested"?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "I completely understand. Just out of curiosity, is it the timing or the product itself?"

Agent: "Many of our customers felt the same way until they saw how it could [benefit]. May I take just one minute to explain how it might help you? If it is not right for you, I will respect that."

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

48 What if the customer says, "I need to think about it"?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "Of course, it is an important decision. So I can help you better, is there something specific you are unsure about, such as the price, the features, or the timing?"

Agent: "Let's go through it together now. Or, if you prefer, I can send you the details and call you back tomorrow at [time]. Would that work for you?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Always try to secure a specific follow-up time.

49 What if the customer says, "I'll buy it somewhere else"?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "That is your right, and I want you to get the best deal. May I ask what offer you found?"

Agent: "Please also consider our warranty, after-sales service, delivery, and return policy, which add real value. If I can offer you [benefit], would you consider buying from us today?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

50 What if the customer says, "I don't need this product"?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "I understand. Many customers say that at first. May I ask how you currently handle [the problem]?"

Agent: "This product can help you with [benefit]. If you don't see the need right now, I will make a note and keep you updated about future offers."

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

51 How would you respond if a customer says your competitor is cheaper?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "I understand, price matters. Let's compare the full value: quality, warranty, support, and delivery. A cheaper option can sometimes cost more later. Our customers choose us because [reason]."

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Never criticize the competitor. Focus on your own strengths.

52 How would you convince a customer who doesn't see the value of your product?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would go back to the customer's needs and ask about the problem they want to solve. Then I would connect our product directly to that problem, using examples, case studies, or numbers, for example: "This will save you about [X] every month." If possible, I would offer a demo or a trial so the customer can see the value personally.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

53 What would you do if the customer keeps rejecting your offer?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would ask questions to find the real reason. If the offer is not right for them, I would adjust it. If they are still not interested, I would respect their decision, thank them politely, leave the door open, and follow up later. I would never be pushy, because trust is more valuable than one sale.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

9.10 Sales Scenarios

✎ NOTE

In every "Sell me..." question the interviewer tests your STRUCTURE, not the product. Formula: ASK questions first - IDENTIFY the need - MATCH benefits - CLOSE confidently.

54 Sell me this pen.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "Before I tell you about it, may I ask you a few questions? How often do you write during the day? What do you usually write with? What do you dislike about your current pen?"

(Customer answers.)

Agent: "Based on what you told me, this pen is perfect for you. It has smooth ink flow, a comfortable grip that does not tire your hand in long meetings, and a professional look. It also lasts for months."

Agent: "Would you like to try it? Shall I wrap it for you?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

55 Sell me your phone.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "What do you mostly use your phone for: photos, work, social media, or games?"

(Customer answers.)

Agent: "Since you take a lot of photos, this phone has an excellent camera, a battery that lasts all day, and fast performance. It also comes with a one-year warranty."

Agent: "It fits your needs really well. Would you like to take it today?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

56 Sell me a laptop.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "What will you use the laptop for: work, study, or gaming? Do you travel with it often? What is your budget?"

(Customer answers.)

Agent: "Since you travel often and work on documents, I recommend this one. It is light, it has a 10-hour battery, a fast SSD, and a clear screen, and it is within your budget."

Agent: "Shall I prepare it for you?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

57 Sell me a gym membership.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "What are your fitness goals: losing weight, building muscle, or staying healthy? What time of day suits you best?"

(Customer answers.)

Agent: "Our gym has modern equipment, professional trainers, group classes, and flexible opening hours that suit your schedule. A membership is an investment in your health."

Agent: "This month we also have no joining fee. Would you like to start with a free trial session today?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

58 Sell me a product you personally like.

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would choose a product I really know, for example [my headphones / my smartphone]. Passion makes the pitch natural: "I have used these for two years. The sound quality is excellent, the battery lasts 30 hours, and they are very comfortable. That is why I recommend them. What do you usually listen to?" Then I would ask about the customer's needs and close.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Choose a product you can speak about for 1-2 minutes with real personal experience.

59 Imagine I'm a customer who isn't interested. Try to sell me this product.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "I understand, and I do not want to waste your time. May I ask one quick question: how do you currently handle [the problem this product solves]?"

(Customer answers.)

Agent: "That is exactly where this product helps. It can [benefit] and save you [time / money]. Would a quick two-minute demonstration be okay? If it does not make sense for you, I will thank you for your time."

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

60 Imagine I'm interested but hesitant. Close the sale.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "It sounds like you like the features, but something is holding you back. Is it the price, the timing, or something else?"

(Customer answers.)

Agent: "I understand. Let me solve that for you: [offer / guarantee / payment plan]. To summarize, you get [benefit 1], [benefit 2], and [benefit 3]. If we complete it today, you also get [bonus]. Shall I go ahead and process your order?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Closing techniques: summary close, assumptive close ("Which color would you like?"), and gentle urgency ("This offer ends this week").

61 How would you upsell a customer?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I listen to what the customer already wants, then suggest a better version that adds real value: "For just a little more, you can get the premium model with double the storage and a two-year warranty. Many customers prefer it because it saves money in the long run." The upsell must be honest and based on the customer's needs, not just on my target.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

62 How would you cross-sell another product?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I suggest products that go well with what the customer is already buying: "Since you are buying the phone, would you like a screen protector and a case to keep it safe? Many customers add them." It should be relevant, helpful, and never forced.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

63 What would you do if you were behind your monthly target?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would analyze the gap and set daily goals. I would prioritize the most promising leads, follow up with pending customers, and improve my calls using feedback. I would also ask my team leader for tips, stay positive, and work smarter, always in an honest and ethical way.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

64 What would you do if you were consistently missing your sales targets?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would honestly analyze the reason: is it lead quality, objection handling, or closing? I would ask for coaching, listen to recordings of top performers, practice new techniques, and set small weekly goals. If I still struggle after these steps, I would discuss it openly with my manager.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

65 How would you prioritize customers when you have limited time?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I prioritize by urgency and potential: customers who are ready to buy, high-value opportunities, and deadlines come first. Simple requests I handle quickly, and for the others I schedule a callback. This way, every customer is treated respectfully and my time is used well.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

9.11 Advanced Questions

66 What would you do if your team leader disagreed with your approach?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would respect their experience and listen first. Then I would politely share my view with a reason or an example: "Could I suggest another option?" If they still prefer their approach, I would follow it and learn from the results. The team's goal is more important than my personal opinion.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

67 What would you do if you disagreed with company policy?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would follow the policy professionally with customers and never criticize it in front of them. Later, I would raise my feedback politely with my supervisor, with a real example and a suggestion. Companies appreciate employees who give constructive ideas.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

68 What would you do if you noticed a colleague giving customers incorrect information?

SAMPLE ANSWER

First, if I can, I would politely make sure the customer gets the correct information. Then I would speak to my colleague privately in a friendly way, because they may simply not know. If it continues or is serious, I would inform my team leader, because accurate information protects both the customers and the company.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

69 What would you do if you had an extremely high workload?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would stay calm, list my tasks, and prioritize the urgent and important ones first. I would avoid distractions and work step by step. If I felt I could not meet a deadline, I would inform my supervisor early and ask for support, instead of waiting until it is too late.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

70 How do you prioritize tasks?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I focus on what is urgent and important first, such as customers waiting and deadlines. Then I handle planned tasks. I use a to-do list and review it during the day, because priorities can change.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

71 How do you handle repetitive work?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I see repetition as practice that makes me faster and more accurate. I stay engaged by treating every customer as a new person with a different story, setting small goals, and focusing on quality in each interaction.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

72 How do you stay motivated when you're having a bad day?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I remind myself that every customer deserves my best, no matter how I feel. I take a short break, a deep breath, and focus on small wins during the day. Smiling while speaking also changes my mood, because the customer can hear the smile in my voice.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

73 How do you react to constructive criticism?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I welcome it as a chance to improve. I listen without defending myself, ask for specific examples, and then apply the advice. Some of my biggest improvements came from feedback.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

74 How would your previous manager describe you?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I believe my manager would say that I am reliable, hardworking, and positive. He would describe me as a quick learner and a team player, someone he could depend on during busy times.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

75 What makes you different from other candidates?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I combine strong communication skills, patience, and real motivation to grow. I also bring [your special skill: another language, sales experience, technical knowledge]. I am a fast learner who takes feedback seriously and adapts quickly to new environments.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

76 What is your biggest professional achievement?

SAMPLE ANSWER

My biggest achievement was when I [reached 110% of my target / received the employee of the month award / reduced customer complaints in my team]. I did it by [staying consistent, learning from top performers, and always following up]. It taught me that effort and consistency always pay off.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Use numbers if you can (percentages, number of customers, time saved).

77 What is one skill you are currently trying to improve?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I am currently working on improving my [advanced English fluency / product knowledge / typing speed]. I practice every day by [speaking English with friends, watching interviews, and taking an online course]. I have already seen good progress.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

78 What are your salary expectations?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I am flexible. Based on my research for this role and my skills, I expect a salary within the range of the company for this position. I would be happy to hear what you have budgeted. For me, the opportunity to learn and grow is just as important.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Research the market range before the interview. If they insist, give a reasonable range, not one fixed number.

79 Are you comfortable working rotational shifts?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes, I understand that call centers work in shifts to support customers at all times, and I am completely comfortable with rotational shifts. I have organized my personal schedule to be flexible.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Only say yes if it is true. Honesty avoids problems later.

80 Are you comfortable working weekends and holidays?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. I understand that customers need support at all times, including weekends and holidays, and I am ready to work according to the schedule.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

81 Are you comfortable working with targets and KPIs?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes, I like to be measured. KPIs such as quality score, customer satisfaction, and average handling time show me exactly where I can improve. I have worked with targets before, and they motivate me.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

82 Are you comfortable making outbound calls?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes, I am. I prepare before each call, speak with confidence and a smile, and stay positive even after rejection. I see every call as an opportunity to help the customer and to learn.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

83 What would you do if you had a difficult target?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would break it into smaller daily and weekly goals and make an action plan. I would focus on the best opportunities, track my progress every day, and ask for coaching when needed. I see difficult targets as challenges that help me grow.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

84 Why should we choose you over another candidate?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I cannot speak for other candidates, but I can tell you what I offer: strong communication skills, genuine passion for customer service, and a real commitment to learn and grow. I am ready to contribute from day one, and I am looking for a long-term place to build my career.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

9.12 Very Professional Situational Questions

✎ NOTE

These are very common at companies such as Intelcia, Concentrix, Teleperformance (TP), and IBEX. Give structured answers: what you SAY + what you DO.

85 A customer is angry because their issue has not been solved after three previous contacts. What would you do?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would start by apologizing sincerely: "I am very sorry that you had to contact us three times. That is not the experience we want you to have."

Then I would review the previous notes so the customer does not need to repeat everything, take ownership, and solve the problem if I can. If I cannot, I would escalate it with full details to the right team, give the customer a clear timeline, share my name, and follow up to confirm that it is solved.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

86 A customer demands a refund, but the policy doesn't allow it. How would you handle the situation?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "I understand how you feel, and I am sorry for the inconvenience. Unfortunately, a refund is not possible in this case because [reason]."

Agent: "However, here is what I can do for you: [exchange / credit / discount / repair]. Would that be acceptable?"

If the customer still insists, I would politely ask my supervisor to review the case and explain what will happen next.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

87 You have a long queue of customers waiting, and one customer is taking too much time. What would you do?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would stay polite and make sure the customer is helped, but I would manage the time: ask focused questions and avoid unnecessary conversation. If the issue is complex, I would say: "I want to give your case the attention it deserves, so I will arrange a follow-up with a specialist." This way, the other customers do not wait too long.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

88 A customer asks you a question and you don't know the answer. What exactly would you say?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "That is a good question, and I want to give you accurate information. Let me check this for you. May I place you on a brief hold?"

(After checking.)

Agent: "Thank you for holding. I have the information for you..."

If I cannot find it: "I will find out and call you back by [time]. Is that okay with you?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

89 Your sales target is 100 units and you're currently at 60 with only three days remaining. What would you do?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I need 40 more units in three days, which is about 13 per day. I would prioritize hot leads and pending customers, follow up on previous quotes, and increase my daily contacts. I would use upselling and cross-selling honestly, and I would ask my team leader for support or leads. I would focus on closing, but never with false promises or pressure.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

90 A customer says your product is too expensive. Give me your response.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "I understand that the price matters to you. May I ask what you are comparing it with?"

Agent: "This product gives you [quality / warranty / support], so it saves you money in the long run. If you prefer, we also have a [more affordable option / payment plan]. Which would work better for you?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

91 A customer says, "I'm not interested." Continue the conversation.

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "I understand, and thank you for being honest. Just so I do not waste your time later, is it because of the price, the timing, or you simply don't need it right now?"

(Customer answers.)

Agent: "Thank you. Many of our customers had the same concern, and this is how we solved it for them... May I share it in one minute?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

92 A customer says, "I need to think about it." How would you respond?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Agent: "Of course, it is an important decision. May I ask which part you would like to think about, so I can give you more information?"

Agent: "If you prefer, I can send you the details and call you back tomorrow at [time]. Is that convenient?"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

93 A customer wants something that violates company policy. What would you do?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would remain polite and clear: "I understand your request, but I am not able to do that, because the policy exists to protect all our customers. What I can do is [alternative]." If the customer insists, I would escalate to my supervisor and explain the case.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready 94 Your supervisor gives you negative feedback that you don't agree with. How would you react?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would stay calm and listen to understand. I would ask for specific examples. If I still disagree, I would share my point of view politely with facts, while staying open to learning. At the end, I would thank my supervisor and make an improvement plan.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

95 You make a mistake that affects a customer. What would you do?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would take responsibility immediately. I would inform the customer and my supervisor, apologize sincerely, and fix the mistake or find a solution. Then I would document the case and take steps to make sure it never happens again.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

96 You have two urgent tasks from two different supervisors. How would you handle them?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would politely tell both supervisors about the conflict: "I have two urgent tasks. Which one should I do first?" I would ask them to agree on the priority, or ask my team leader to decide. Open communication avoids problems and misunderstandings.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

97 A customer insults you personally. What would you do?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would stay calm and professional, and I would not respond with emotion. I would give one polite warning: "I would really like to help you, but I cannot continue if the language remains abusive." If it continues, I would follow the company policy: escalate or end the call, and report the incident.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

98 You are having a bad day, but you still have to maintain high customer satisfaction. How would you handle it?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I separate my personal feelings from my work. I take a deep breath, smile before I speak, and focus on helping the customer in front of me. I remind myself that the customer does not know about my day and deserves my best. A short break also helps me reset.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

99 Your colleague is struggling with their workload while you are busy with yours. What would you do?

SAMPLE ANSWER

After finishing my urgent task, I would offer help: "Do you need a hand with anything?" I could take a small part of their workload, or suggest speaking to the team leader for support. Teamwork benefits everyone, and I would expect the same support from them.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

100 You notice that a process is causing repeated customer complaints. What would you do?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would collect examples and data about how often it happens and its impact. Then I would report it to my supervisor with a suggested solution. In the meantime, I would help the customers with the best available workaround. Constructive feedback helps the company improve.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

9.13 Extra Common Call Center Questions

101 What do you know about our company?

SAMPLE ANSWER

106 What are the steps of a good customer call?

SAMPLE ANSWER

A good call has seven steps: 1) Greet the customer and introduce myself. 2) Verify the customer's identity. 3) Listen and understand the issue. 4) Show empathy. 5) Solve the problem or explain the next steps. 6) Confirm the customer is satisfied. 7) Close professionally: "Thank you for calling. Have a great day!"

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

107 Tell me about a time you went above and beyond for a customer.

SAMPLE ANSWER

A customer called about a late delivery that he needed for his daughter's birthday. Besides tracking the order, I called the delivery team and arranged priority delivery, and I called him back to confirm it. The package arrived on time, and he sent a thank-you message to my manager.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

108 How would you handle confidential customer information?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I treat customer data with the highest respect. I verify the customer's identity before sharing any information, I never share information with third parties, I do not write down passwords or personal data, and I follow the company's security and data protection policies.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

109 What would you do if you could not solve a customer's issue?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would be honest: "I am sorry I can't solve this directly, but I will make sure it reaches the right team." Then I would escalate it with full notes, give the customer a clear timeline and a reference number, and follow up so the customer does not feel ignored.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

110 What would you do if the system went down during a call?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would stay calm and inform the customer politely: "I am experiencing a technical issue with my system. I apologize for the delay." I would note the customer's details manually, try the backup process, inform my team leader, and offer a callback once the system is working again.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

111 How would you handle a customer with a strong accent or a poor phone line?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would be patient and respectful. I would listen carefully, repeat and confirm key information: "Just to confirm, you said...?", and politely ask the customer to repeat if needed. If the line is bad, I would offer to call back or use another channel, such as email or chat.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

112 What does AHT mean, and how can you improve it?

SAMPLE ANSWER

AHT means Average Handling Time. It is the average time to complete a customer interaction, including talk time and after-call work. I can improve it by knowing the product well, using the knowledge base quickly, asking focused questions, typing faster, and avoiding unnecessary conversation, while keeping quality high.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

113 What are the main KPIs in a call center?

SAMPLE ANSWER

The main KPIs are: AHT (Average Handling Time), FCR (First Call Resolution), CSAT (Customer Satisfaction Score), NPS (Net Promoter Score), QA (Quality Assurance score), Adherence to schedule, and Occupancy. Together, they measure speed, quality, and customer happiness.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

11 4 How do you stay on script but sound natural?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I know the script and its purpose well, so I can use it as a guide, not as a robot. I keep the mandatory sentences, but I use a friendly tone, the customer's name, and natural pauses. I listen to the customer first, so my replies match their real situation.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

11 5 How would you handle a customer who is confused or silent?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would be patient and use a calm, friendly tone. I would ask simple questions: "May I ask what you are trying to do?" and explain step by step, with short sentences. I would confirm every step: "Is that clear so far?" so the customer feels comfortable.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

11 6 What would you do if a customer asks for a supervisor?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would stay calm and not take it personally. I would first try to solve the problem: "I would be happy to help you right away. May I know what the issue is?" If the customer still wants a supervisor, I would follow company procedure and transfer the call, explaining the case to the supervisor so the customer does not have to repeat it.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

11 7 How do you stay energetic during back-to-back calls?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I treat every call as a new start. I sit well, drink water, smile while speaking, and use short breaks to reset. I also focus on small wins, such as one satisfied customer, to keep my energy positive.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

11 8 Do you prefer working alone or in a team?

SAMPLE ANSWER

I can do both. I am responsible and independent when I handle my own customers and tasks, but I also believe teamwork is very important in a call center: sharing tips, covering for each other, and supporting each other during busy times.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

119 Can you commit to attendance, punctuality, and staying with the company long term?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes, absolutely. I understand that attendance and punctuality are very important in a call center, because customers and teammates depend on me. I am looking for a long-term career, and I am ready to commit.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

120 Describe your ideal work environment and manager.

SAMPLE ANSWER

I like a supportive, positive team environment with clear goals and regular feedback. My ideal manager is someone who communicates clearly, coaches the team, and trusts employees to do their work.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready 121 Tell me about a time you persuaded someone.

SAMPLE ANSWER

A colleague did not want to try a new process because he thought it would take longer. I showed him the numbers and offered to test it together for one day. He saw that it saved time and agreed to use it. I learned that listening to concerns and using facts is more convincing than pushing.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

122 Tell me about yourself (fresh graduate version).

SAMPLE ANSWER

Thank you for the opportunity. My name is [Name], and I recently graduated from [University] with a degree in [Major]. During my studies, I [worked part-time / did volunteer work / joined student activities], where I developed my communication, teamwork, and problem-solving skills.

Although I have no direct call center experience, I am a fast learner, I speak English confidently, and I enjoy helping people. I am excited to start my career in customer service and grow with your company.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

123 You have no call center experience. Why are you a good fit?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Although I don't have call center experience, I have transferable skills: strong communication, patience, and the ability to learn quickly. In [my previous job / my studies / my volunteer work], I dealt with people every day and solved problems under pressure. I am ready to take your training seriously and work hard to become a top performer.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

12 4 Describe yourself in three words.

SAMPLE ANSWER

I would describe myself as patient, motivated, and reliable. Patient, because I stay calm with every customer. Motivated, because I always want to improve and reach my goals. And reliable, because my team and my manager can depend on me.

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

12 5 Do you have any questions for us?

SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes, thank you. I have a few questions:

1) What does the training program look like for new agents?

2) What are the main KPIs for this role?

3) What does career progression look like for a top performer?

4) What is the team culture like?

5) What are the next steps in the hiring process?

Status: ☐ I read it ☐ I said it aloud ☐ I am ready

★ TIP

Always ask 2-3 questions. Saying "No questions" can look like low interest. Do NOT ask about salary or vacations first.

9.14 Mock Interview Sets

Use these sets in the last days before your interview. Ask a friend or your trainer to read the questions (or record them yourself), then answer without looking at the sample answers. Each set has 10 questions: 3 customer service, 3 behavioral, 3 sales, and 1 difficult scenario. The numbers are question numbers from this module.

Set	Question numbers	Focus
Set A	1, 6, 11, 14, 27, 30, 36, 46, 54, 85	Personal, angry customer, mistake story, price objection, Sell me this pen, repeated complaint
Set B	3, 8, 12, 17, 28, 31, 43, 48, 60, 86	Motivation, weakness, shouting customer, feedback, closing a hesitant customer, refund
Set C	7, 9, 19, 25, 29, 34, 51, 57, 89, 98	Strengths, future, policy and refund, solving problems, competitor, target pressure, bad day

★ TIP

Do the mock interview in a quiet place, sit up straight, and speak to the camera or the person. Time yourself: each answer 30 to 90 seconds. After each set, score yourself with the sheet below.

9.15 Interview Scoring Sheet

Give yourself a score from 1 (weak) to 5 (excellent) for each area after every mock interview. Write one improvement goal for the next session. A score of 4 or more in every row means you are interview-ready.

Area	What to check	Score (1-5)
Pronunciation	Clear sounds, correct word stress, ending sounds (-s, -ed)
Grammar	Correct tenses, he / she / it + s, questions
Vocabulary	Professional words and phrases, not repeating the same words
Fluency	Smooth speed, few long pauses, chunking
Content and STAR	Direct answer, real example, result, linked to the job
Customer empathy	Calm, polite, uses empathy and solutions
Confidence	Voice, smile, eye contact, no filler words (umm, ehh)

Mock interview log	Date	Set	Total score (35)	My goal for next time

9.16 Interview Day Checklist

✓ THE NIGHT BEFORE

- ☐ Review your top 20 hardest questions and your "Tell me about yourself" answer.
- ☐ Prepare 3 STAR stories: a difficult customer, a mistake you learned from, and an achievement.
- ☐ Research the company: services, clients, locations, and culture.
- ☐ Prepare 2 or 3 questions to ask the interviewer.
- ☐ Prepare your documents: CV copies, ID, certificates. Plan your route and arrive 15 minutes early.
- ☐ Sleep well. A rested voice sounds confident.

✓ ON THE DAY

- ☐ Dress professionally and keep a calm, friendly smile.
- ☐ Warm up your voice: speak English aloud for 10 minutes before the interview.

- ☐ Listen to the whole question, take a breath, then answer with a clear structure.
- ☐ In role-plays, stay polite and calm, ask questions first, and offer a solution.
- ☐ At the end, thank the interviewer, ask your questions, and confirm the next steps.
